BYLAWS OF THE STATE BAR OF GEORGIA

Pertinent Rules and Regulations for the Organization and Government of the State Bar of Georgia:

Rule 1-206. Affiliate Members.

In addition to the membership and classes of membership provided in this Chapter, the State Bar may recognize as affiliates, without the rights and privileges of membership, members of the legal profession not authorized to practice law in Georgia, but who are licensed to practice law in another state or the District of Columbia, and are in good standing in all jurisdictions in which they are licensed. Affiliate members may be furnished copies of appropriate publications and may be entitled to attend and participate, without the right to vote or hold office, in those meetings and activities conducted by the State Bar and any of its component parts or sections.

Bylaws, State Bar of Georgia, Article I. Section 6. Affiliate and Law Student Members.

In addition to the classes of membership provided in the preceding sections of this Article, the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee of the Board may consider and approve or disapprove applications for Affiliate or Law Student membership with the State Bar. Any Affiliate member or Law Student member shall have the right to attend State Bar meetings and receive State Bar official publications, but shall not have the right to hold office or vote or have other rights and privileges incident to membership. An Affiliate or Law Student member shall not hold himself or herself out to the public or imply in any manner that he or she is a member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia or entitled to practice law in this State. Affiliate or Law Student members are no longer assigned membership numbers. They will be assigned a membership number when they become an official member obtaining Active or Inactive status. The State Bar retains the right to deny or revoke the membership privileges of any Affiliate or Law Student member who violates this Section.

The application form for an Affiliate or Law Student membership shall include the recommendation of the applicant by an active member in good standing with the State Bar. Affiliate or Law Student membership may be renewed each fiscal year without additional application. The Board of Governors shall prescribe the dues or fees for Affiliate or Law Student membership. Affiliate membership shall be approved only when the applicant is licensed to practice law in another state or the District of Columbia, and is in good standing in all jurisdictions in which he or she is licensed, and is an employee of government, the armed services, a private or commercial institution or a law school, and is not otherwise authorized to practice law in Georgia.
