

Annual Fiction Writing Competition

Deadline January 27, 2006

The editorial board of the Georgia Bar Journal is pleased to announce that it will sponsor its Annual Fiction Writing Contest in accordance with the rules set forth below. The purposes of this competition are to enhance interest in the Journal, to encourage excellence in writing by members of the Bar, and to provide an innovative vehicle for the illustration of the life and work of lawyers. For further information, contact C. Tyler Jones, Director of Communications, State Bar of Georgia, 104 Marietta St. NW, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30303; (404) 527-8736.

Rules for Annual Fiction Writing Competition

The following rules will govern the Annual Fiction Writing Competition sponsored by the Editorial Board of the Georgia Bar Journal.

1. The competition is open to any member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia, except current members of the Editorial Board. Authors may collaborate, but only one submission from each member will be considered.
2. Subject to the following criteria, the article may be on any fictional topic and may be in any form (humorous, anecdotal, mystery, science fiction, etc.). Among the criteria the Board will consider in judging the articles submitted are: quality of writing; creativity; degree of interest to lawyers and relevance to their life and work; extent to which the article comports with the established reputation of the Journal; and adherence to specified limitations on length and other competition requirements. The Board will not consider any article that, in the sole judgement of the Board, contains matter that is libelous or that violates accepted community standards of good taste and decency.
3. All articles submitted to the competition become the property of the State Bar of Georgia and, by submitting the article, the author warrants that all persons and events contained in the article are fictitious, that any similarity to actual persons or events is purely coincidental and that the article has not been previously published.
4. Articles should not be more than 7,500 words in length and should be submitted electronically.
5. Articles will be judged without knowledge of the author's identity. The author's name and State Bar ID number should be placed on a separate cover sheet with the name of the story.
6. All submissions must be received at State Bar headquarters in proper form prior to the close of business on a date specified by the Board. Submissions received after that date and time will not be considered. Please direct all submissions to: Fiction Writing Competition, C. Tyler Jones, Director of Communications, State Bar of Georgia, 104 Marietta St. NW, Suite 100, Atlanta, GA 30303. The author assumes all risks of delivery by mail. Or submit by e-mail to tyler@gabar.org
7. Depending on the number of submissions, the Board may elect to solicit outside assistance in reviewing the articles. The final decision, however, will be made by majority vote of the Board. Contestants will be advised of the results of the competition by letter. Honorable mentions may be announced.
8. The winning article, if any, will be published. The Board reserves the right to edit articles and to select no winner and to publish no article from among those submitted if the submissions are deemed by the Board not to be of notable quality.
