CLE: What Happens in Vegas:

Enforcing the Deal and Representing Clients Who Face Legal Issues While in Vegas | 9 - 11:30 a.m.

In the legal world, settlement agreements are a common occurrence. But, how do you force the other side to comply with the terms of the settlement agreement? Lee Davis of Davis Leardo Law, LLC will show how to enforce the deal! Lee will cover some of the key criteria for drafting an enforceable settlement agreement. He will also summarize the legal issues and applicable case law concerning the enforcement of settlement agreements.

Following Lee's presentation, three of Las Vegas' premier attorneys will provide the YLD with a Las Vegas Legal Overview from an in-house, criminal and civil perspective. Join us as The Cosmopolitan's General Counsel, Anthony Pearl, provides guidance on legal issues tourists face while patrons at casinos. Steve Yeager, Deputy Public Defender for Clark County (Las Vegas), will delve into common criminal law issues that arise while visiting Las Vegas. Craig Drummond of Drummond Law, P.C., will provide an overview of Las Vegas' civil courts and litigating Las Vegas personal injury cases.

This CLE will be moderated by ShaMiracle Johnson. Two hours of general CLE credit and one hour of professionalism credit have been approved.

The CLE will also be broadcast live via the internet for those who cannot attend the Spring Meeting in person. You must register for the "CLE-web" option on the registration form and you will be sent more information closer to date. For those who view the CLE online, only self-study credit will be given.

Group Dinner | 7 - 9 p.m.

Location TBD. More information will be sent to registered attendees closer to date.

Hospitality Suite | Late Night
