

Social Security's Law & Policy team is Hiring Experienced Fiscal Law Attorneys!

Join us! The Social Security Administration's Law & Policy (L&P) seeks contracting and appropriations law attorneys to join our dynamic team in our Program, Fiscal and Disclosure Law (PFD Law) – Fiscal Law Branch.

WHY SSA: Social Security touches the lives of millions, providing vital services and a social safety net. SSA's L&P is a modern public service law office with a highly skilled, engaged, and diverse workforce. We strategically manage a large national workload through effective collaboration and coordination. We offer the opportunity to handle meaningful and challenging legal work, while earning a competitive salary (plus locality pay), strong government benefits, and a consistent schedule.

WHY PFD LAW'S FISCAL LAW BRANCH: PFD Law seeks highly qualified attorneys with at least two years' experience handling all aspects of Federal contracting and appropriations law. Fiscal Law attorneys provide legal guidance on a wide variety of contracting and appropriations law issues, including legal advice and guidance regarding federal contracting, proper use of agency funds, agreements with other agencies, and associated Federal Regulations. Fiscal Law attorneys also represent the agency in bid protests.

Attorneys joining PFD Law will have significant responsibility for their own caseloads. Attorneys should have demonstrated strong analytical, research, and writing skills, as well as sound oral advocacy skills to represent SSA's interests. Attorneys also must have the ability to quickly form positive relationships with internal clients and external partners. Fiscal Law attorneys also may have the opportunity to work with the Department of Justice in representing SSA in Federal courts.
