Rule 1-206.1. Law Student Members

In addition to the membership and classes of membership provided in this chapter, the State Bar of Georgia may recognize as law student members, without the rights and privileges of membership, those law students currently enrolled in a law school approved by the American Bar Association or any law school approved by the Georgia Board of Bar Examiners. Law student members may be furnished copies of appropriate publications electronically and may be entitled to attend and participate, without the right to vote or hold office, in those meetings and activities conducted by the State Bar of Georgia and any of its component parts or sections.

Section 6. Affiliate Membership and Law Student Membership.

In addition to the classes of membership provided in Rule 1-202, Organization of the State Bar and Admissions, the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee may consider and approve or disapprove applications for Affiliate or Law Student membership with the State Bar of Georgia. Affiliate and Law Student members shall have the right to attend State Bar of Georgia meetings and receive official publications. Neither Affiliate nor Law Student members may hold office, vote, or have any other rights and privileges incident to the membership classes set forth in Rule 1-202 with the State Bar of Georgia. Affiliate or Law Student members shall not hold themselves out or imply to the public, courts, or members of the legal profession that they are members of the State Bar of Georgia as defined in Rule 1-202 of the State Bar of Georgia. The State Bar retains the right to deny or revoke the membership privileges of any Affiliate or Law Student member who violates this Section.

- (b) Law Student Membership. The application form for a Law Student member shall include a certification by the applicant that he or she is a student, currently enrolled in a law school approved by the American Bar Association or any law school approved by the Georgia Board of Bar Examiners, and is in good standing. Law Student membership may be renewed each Bar year by certifying to the Membership Department of the State Bar of Georgia that the student is currently enrolled in and attending law school and is in good standing. The Board of Governors may set annual dues or fees for Law Student membership.
