ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A History of the State Bar of Georgia Young Lawyers Division

In 1883, 33 attorneys formed the first Georgia Bar Association. The purpose of the association was to “advance the science of jurisprudence, promote the administration of justice throughout the State, uphold the honor of the profession of law” and establish cordial dealings between members of the profession.

The Younger Lawyers Section (YLS) was created on May 31, 1947, at the State Bar’s Annual Meeting. The basic structure of the section consisted of four officers, an Executive Committee and Executive Council. The YLS was created in order to further the original goals of the charter members of the State Bar of Georgia, along with fostering among the members of the Bar the principles of duty and service to the public, and to encourage the interest and participation of younger members of the State Bar.

When the YLS was first enacted, all members of the State Bar who had not reached their 36th birthday were automatically members of the YLS. It was later added that attorneys, regardless of age, who had been admitted to their first bar less than three years were also considered members of the YLS. The basic structure and purpose of the organization remain the same today, however, in June of 1998 the section was renamed the Young Lawyers Division (YLD).

The Young Lawyers Division has been strengthened over the years through guidance by the State Bar of Georgia, its Executive Committee and Board of Governors, the Supreme Court and through dedicated service rendered by its members. In keeping with its motto of “working for the profession and the public,” the YLD has many hard-working committees that provide service to the public and the Bar through an array of projects and programs. Through the years, the division has also gained national recognition by winning several American Bar Association awards for its projects and publications.

Committee Chair Guidelines

The following outline attempts to address the main topics involved in running a successful committee: getting started, holding meetings, reporting and ensuring continuity. It is not intended to be a comprehensive guide. It is a list of general ideas on how to make a committee work efficiently and effectively.

I. GETTING STARTED

- A. Set Goals and Deadlines Early. As leader of the committee, your primary function is to generate enthusiasm for your meetings and projects and keep the projects flowing. You should take some time prior to setting the first meeting to think about what you want to accomplish during the year. You don't need to have fully hatched plans for the committee; rather, you need to float good ideas and see what develops. The YLD office is a good resource for information about what may have been done in the past or what similar committees might be doing. In addition, ideas can be found on the ABA/YLD website (www.abanet.org/yld/home.html) and on other state bar's websites (see www.tyla.org and www.flayld.org.) The first meeting should be devoted to talking about and formulating one or more goals for the year, and then setting a timetable for achieving each goal. This is the most important thing to accomplish. Aim to maintain momentum throughout the year; holding one event at the beginning of the YLD year, with none towards the middle and end, is not desirable and can cause disunity amongst the committee members.
- B. Co-Chairs. If you have a co-chair, schedule an advance planning meeting with that person to divide up responsibilities and to make sure you are both on the same page about the committee's goals for the year. Be sure to keep in communication during the year, particularly in advance of committee meetings and events.
- C. Recruiting Committee Members. The YLD sends a recruitment brochure at the end of each summer to recruit YLD members to sign up for committees. The YLD office will forward to you a list of the persons who have signed up for your committee. In addition, you should utilize your own network to recruit committee members. If there is a specific task that requires a unique skill set, do not hesitate to call someone you know who fits the bill and invite them personally to join the committee and take on the task. The key to recruiting and retaining committee members is communicating to them, through words and by delegating tasks and seeking advice, that they are a vital member of the committee. This will provide them ownership and make them feel a part of something larger than themselves, both of which act as internal motivators.

- D. Motivating Committee Members. Remember that part of your job is generating enthusiasm and keeping the ball rolling. That means, at a minimum, keeping your members informed and continuing to move forward. Some suggestions:
- Be aggressive in involving committee members, even if a member misses a meeting, send an email about the meeting and what was accomplished, and continue to send meeting notices to all members.
 - Send a meeting summary to committee members with reminders of what they volunteered to do. This can be accomplished through social media pages or email lists.
 - Recognize your committee members who go above and beyond the call of duty, or who truly work hard.
 - Should your project become stalled for reasons outside of your control, continue to hold meetings. Consider creating smaller, short-range goals until you can get back on track.

II. MEETINGS

- A. Holding Meetings. Meetings should be held early and often. As soon as possible, set a regular meeting time for your committee (e.g., the third Thursday at noon) so that all committee members can calendar the meeting. You may want to vary the location around the state. The Bar Center offers a number of meeting rooms, teleconference capabilities and free parking to Bar members. You can contact the YLD office to check availability on meeting space and make reservations.

The timing of the meeting can be crucial. Lunch meetings often ensure a good turnout as well as Thursday afternoon meetings where hors d'oeuvres and beverages can be served to entice lawyers trying to wind down their weeks. Most food items can be catered and those expenses can be taken out of the committee's budget. (Alcohol is not a reimbursable expense.)

Providing members with strong speakers is one way to increase turnout and interest in your committee. This provides members value and a reason to take time to attend a committee meeting.

- B. Have a Written Agenda for Every Meeting. As your committee's leader, it is your job to prepare and stick to a written agenda for each meeting. You should circulate the agenda prior to the meeting and request members to get back to you about any ideas or changes.

- C. Keep Written Minutes of the Meeting. Assign a committee person who will be attending meetings regularly to keep minutes of every meeting. A form has been provided in your handbook. Provide the minutes to the YLD Director and your committee members as soon as possible after the meeting. Make sure your next meeting and upcoming events are listed so that they can be added to the YLD calendar.
- D. Low Attendance. Sometimes, only three or four members may show up for a committee meeting. If this happens, you may need to change your regular meeting time or place. Don't get discouraged—persistence will pay off!

III. REPORTING

- A. Meeting Minutes and Correspondence. See above for discussion of the minutes. In addition, please ensure that all committee reports, meeting notices and general correspondence are forwarded to the YLD Director.
- B. YLD Newsletter. The YLD Review is a valuable resource in generating interest in or reporting about your committee or project. Write an article and send along a high-resolution photograph of your committee at work. You should also submit your meeting notices, calendar of events or other items of interest. The YLD newsletter deadlines are:

Volume 66, Issue 1: September 1, 2024

Volume 66, Issue 2: Nov. 1, 2024

Volume 66, Issue 3: Feb. 1, 2025

Volume 66, Issue 4: May 1, 2025

These are hard deadlines. No extensions will be granted without approval from the YLD newsletter editors and the YLD president.

- C. Awards of Achievement. Each year, the YLD submits a package of all of its committees' accomplishments to the American Bar Association for consideration for the Awards of Achievement. The Georgia YLD has been quite successful with its submissions in the past, winning awards for its newsletters and community service projects. It is the committee chair's responsibility to get the information for the Award of Achievement together and forward it to the YLD office following each project. Include copies of all correspondence, photographs or videos of the projects, flyers or other items generated by your committee for part of your submission. Your task in preparing for the Award of Achievement submission is made much easier by keeping it in mind as you go.

- D. YLD Business Meetings. The YLD generally meets four times each year: the Midyear Meeting of the State Bar of Georgia, as well as three other times in accordance with the Bylaws. All committees should provide a written report of the committee's activities to the YLD office no later than 15 days in advance of each YLD meeting to be delivered at the meeting.

Even though these meetings are not mandatory as part of your duties as chair, they are beneficial. You will be able to report on your committee's work and recruit members from around the state. The meetings also provide informal and leisurely opportunities to exchange ideas. In addition, they provide excellent opportunities for networking and meeting colleagues in person.

This includes any information published on the internet, including on websites, listservs, blogs, social media, etc. The State Bar has established policies on websites and emails, which are located in this handbook.

Committee Chair Guidelines

IV. FINANCES

- A. Budget. Each committee is given a monetary allotment for the year. Your committee's budget is contained under the Financial Information tab in this handbook. Expenditures should not exceed that amount.

Committee chairs shall be responsible for the preparation of budgets for their respective committees. The budget for the amount allotted for the current Bar year and any anticipated funds raised should be sent to the YLD director for approval by the treasurer no later than Sept. 30.

In addition, a proposed budget for the anticipated expenses and anticipated fundraising during the next Bar year should be sent to the YLD director and treasurer no later than Dec. 31 in order to ensure sufficient funding is allocated during the following Bar year. Any changes to the proposed budget should be communicated as soon as they are learned to facilitate the budgeting process.

If you are planning special events or believe your committee may exceed its allotted amount, think about how your project could dovetail with another, similar committee of the YLD or even the State Bar, and try to tap into the other committee's resources. You can also consider raising funds from outside sources, sponsors, friends of the Bar and/or foundations. Be sure you talk with the YLD director prior to commencing such a campaign. More information on fundraising is contained in this handbook.

- B. Expenditures. Expenditures should be made according to the committee's budget. Amounts allocated to committees must be used by June 30, or they will revert back to the State Bar of Georgia's general operating fund.

The State Bar has negotiated discounts with various vendors. Contact the YLD office to take advantage of them.

Because amounts allocated to committees are derived from Bar dues and the Bar is committed to being fiscally prudent with the use of Bar dues, committee allocations may NOT be used for the following:

- Alcohol
- Duplicating, mailing or faxing of materials. Committees should utilize the resources of the State Bar of Georgia for the reproduction and distribution of written materials, or absorb the cost should committee chairs or members duplicate and mail or fax materials from their office.
- Travel expenditures such as mileage and parking for committee chairs, members or speakers.

- Speaker appreciation gifts. Please contact the YLD office for speaker appreciation gifts.
- Reimbursement of members or speakers for time spent by them or any partner, associate, paralegal or other employee in connection with committee activities.
- Charitable contributions. Any individuals making such commitments shall be personally liable therefore.
- To pay for CLE credit for committee members, chairs or speakers.

In addition, committees should structure fees for programs, CLEs and other functions, or augment fees by means of sponsorship income, to operate such events on a financially self-sustaining basis to minimize the extent to which funds derived from the dues of non-attending Bar members are used to sustain such events. Should estimated costs for a program or event exceed proposed revenues, or if other circumstances exist, such as the poor overall financial condition of the committee, the YLD Executive Committee may require the committee to adjust the proposed fee or otherwise augment revenues.

Payment is not authorized for expenditures incurred by any committee except as provided for in the budget of such committee. Prior to drawing a State Bar of Georgia check for payment of any committee expenditure, the YLD office shall verify that such expense is a budgeted item and sufficient funds remain for such purpose.

- C. Reimbursement. Requests for reimbursement should be submitted to the YLD office within 30 days of the expenditure. The reimbursement form is included in this handbook. You must include all receipts, invoices, etc., and deliver to the YLD office. Backup is required in order to cut a check. A receipt showing items as "paid" and/or a zero balance is required by accounting to process your reimbursement. Copies of your credit card statement are not permissible as receipts. In addition, the reimbursement form must be accompanied by the ABA Project Information Form describing the committee project.

All reimbursements over $100 and not listed in the committee's approved budget must be pre-approved by submitting a request to the YLD office two weeks prior to expenditure. If pre-approval is not obtained, no reimbursement will be available. Some requests may require the YLD office to receive approval from the YLD president and/or YLD Executive Committee.

- D. Other State Bar Finance Rules. No committee shall have funds or bank accounts of its own, as all transactions connected with committee activities shall be reflected in the appropriate State Bar of Georgia/YLD account.

All funds received by a committee shall be remitted to the YLD, and all expenditures on behalf of a committee shall be paid by check of the State Bar of Georgia.

V. RESOURCES

State Bar Staff. The YLD Coordinator is available to assist the committees, but does not carry out the work of committees. The YLD Coordinator will be able to help with coordinating meeting notices (given sufficient time), arranging for conference rooms, establishing video and teleconference connections, administering expense reimbursements and communicating with the YLD Executive Council.

VI. CONTINUITY

The Bar year often seems incredibly short for committee chairs to accomplish any goal. In addition, the YLD's Bylaws provide that no person may chair a single committee for more than two years in a row. Some ways to ensure that the work done by your committee does not get lost in the shuffle of a long or a new year:

- Appoint a co-chair or vice chair, with the consent of the YLD president and the YLD president-elect, with the understanding that this person will become chair in the future.
- All letters, agendas, minutes, award of achievement submissions and other documents must be passed along to the next year's chair(s). Preparing a notebook is a great way to do this.
- Write an informal year-end summary for the notebook telling what was done, what was rejected and what not to do.
- Chairs are appointed by the YLD president to serve concurrently with him or her. Be on the lookout for committee members who would be good successors to you and recommend them to the YLD president-elect.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS

- A. Legislation. All positions on legislation must be approved by the Board of Governors of the State Bar. Committees are not permitted to lobby, except in conjunction with a concerted and approved State Bar effort.
- B. Use of Bar Center. Committee meetings may be held at the Bar Center with advance notice. Contact the YLD Administrative Assistant to schedule space.
- C. Committee Chair Orientation. All committee chairs are highly encouraged to attend the YLD Committee Chair Orientation.

- D. Needs Analysis/Long Range Planning. The YLD Executive Committee annually develops organizational goals for the year. In addition, during the Bar year, the YLD will be conducting a needs analysis and developing a long range plan to ensure that the YLD and its committees are meeting the needs of the YLD members.

Committee projects should be geared to fit within the organizational goals of the YLD, to meet the needs of YLD members and to further the purposes of the YLD, as set forth in the YLD Bylaws. Care should be taken in developing projects to ensure that they constitute a service to the profession or the public that is broad in scope. In addition, projects should not promote specific ideologies or religions.

PRACTICAL TIPS FOR COMMITTEE CHAIRS

Planning the Meeting

- » Meeting Notices: Give members notice well in advance of meetings or set the schedule for the year and stick to it. Committee members will be more likely to prepare and follow through if they see the big picture of meetings and deadlines.
- » Charges: It would be difficult to chair a committee if you did not know what the President and the Executive Committee expected of the group. If he or she has not charged the committee with specific, measurable goals, then ask for clarification or set your committee goals and clear them with these individuals.
- » Time Management: Committee members' time is valuable. Let them know this by thanking them for attending and showing respect for their time. Start and end your meeting on time. If work isn't completed within the meeting timeframe, suggest a conference call in the interim. Make every minute count.
- » Committee Composition: A word about overly large committees and "dead weight"—if, as the committee chair, you cannot figure out why some people volunteer without commitment or even showing up for meetings, speak to the YLD director about replacing them with more effective members or paring down the committee to a manageable size.
- » Orientation: Committee volunteers will appreciate a short briefing at the start of the year to learn what is expected of them. For instance, how many meetings will be required, and how many hours will they need to give? This is also the time to indicate that though everyone is a volunteer, accountability and follow-through will be required to serve the committee.

- » Subcommittees: To accomplish more work on a timely basis, consider appointing subcommittees from among your members. A subcommittee or task force is smaller, more agile and can get the work done faster in many instances.
- » Publicizing: Publicizing a meeting is important. A committee can host a tier-one event, but if no one is aware of it, then no one will attend it. Creating an email list, listserv or Mailchimp account and maintaining an active membership list is one way to maximize event visibility. Committees are also recommended to reach out to the YLD director or administrative assistant for assistance in creating social media posts or pages, and to post pictures and other information to maintain an active presence to its members. If a separate social media account is created for the committee, it must be approved by the YLD director and president. Remember to publicize in advance as well as take photographs and memorialize the event afterwards. Highlighting past events can generate interest and activity as well.

At the Meeting

- » Seating: Don't miss the opportunity to plant yourself at the best seat at the table. That's not usually hidden in the corner or crowded among members. You want to be seen and have room to spread out—take advantage of the power of seating by arriving first.
- » Guests and VIPs: From time to time you may have a guest or non-committee member sit in the meeting. Treat them with respect by making them feel welcome and introducing them to the other members.
- » Agenda: The agenda keeps the meeting moving. It serves as a guide for committee members to gauge how long the meeting will last and how much discussion each item should receive. A meeting without an agenda allows for rambling discussions and sidebar chatter as members wait for the next topic.
- » Forms: It may help to have forms that make record keeping easier. Committees use forms to record motions, for sign-in rosters, for taking minutes and to report to the YLD Executive Committee. Consider the forms that will best serve your needs and streamline the work. Be sure to keep forms and materials that are generated for the committee in a central place—a notebook, Google doc or Dropbox account—in order to pass it on to future committee chairs.
- » Flipchart: A flipchart offers multiple purposes—some of them psychological. You may need to take charge of a meeting by walking to the flipchart to make a point. Or you can emphasize a point by using it to outline a plan, draw a chart or create a calendar, for example. Another use of a flipchart is for the member who likes to spout out ideas but seldom offers any details. Ask him or her to outline the idea on the flipchart, which usually silences them or helps to make their point.
- » Performance Criteria: Every committee project can be measured in various ways. For example, if the project is education—are you seeking to generate revenue, position the organization or enroll new members? Each volunteer will have a different perspective that you as chair will want to take into account and then set criteria for determining success.
- » Minutes: Committees should use minutes to report to the non-attending members, the YLD director and the YLD president on actions and to record commitments, deadlines and action steps. The chair is too busy to run the meeting and take the minutes, so seek a volunteer willing to actively listen and take good notes.
- » Diplomat and Traffic Cop: As committee chair, you'll have to keep members focused. If sidebar conversations develop, bring attention back to the agenda and pertinent discussions. It's okay to ask that cell phones be silenced and discussions stay focused.
- » Take Action: Simply stated, "Actions speak louder than words." Read the minutes of your last meeting. Are they simply reports and discussions—or do you see a clear course of actions, steps and progress?
- » Summarize: Every agenda item creates discussion. It is important that the chair summarize what is understood for the group. If someone says let's raise the fees and another member says we should offer discounts, it is up to the chair to bring about consensus. Try something like, "those are good points, what I think I hear you saying is we should offer seminars that make money for the organization but are discounted for members."
- » Calendars: Bring a calendar to the meeting—it's an important tool for setting the project deadlines and planning activities. It's easier to discuss the next meeting with a calendar in sight than to say you'll be announcing the meeting when you get back to your office.
- » Handouts: Give members the information they need for decision making. If it's a contract to review, make enough copies to distribute—don't just read it to them. The same applies to agendas and other documents. By distributing information in advance, volunteers can review and prepare for your meeting.

- » The Big Picture: The chair must envision the organization's overall "big picture" (i.e., strategic mission and goals) and how the committee's work fits in. Try not to look at each goal as a successive project (one activity to achieve before tackling the next), but how you can advance the goals simultaneously. For example, if you are charged with developing several educational seminars, don't just plan one per quarter, but schedule a full year of seminars, sponsors and speakers.
- » Rules of Order: Rules of order are encouraged. They don't have to be formal but the position of chair should be respected, motions should be made and seconded before debate, and members should be recognized before speaking. Chaos develops if everyone speaks at once.

After the Meeting

- » Reports: As a committee leader, there is a responsibility for keeping the YLD director and the YLD president informed. The best way to do this is by written reports provided to them within 10 days of the meeting. Let them know of decisions, progress, needed resources and when the next meeting is scheduled. Keep your committee members well informed by copying them on the reports.
- » Interim Efforts: Check the progress of committee work in between formal meetings. Set up a mechanism for having committee members and subcommittees report on their progress. If you don't hear from members, remind them of their commitments and the need for accountability to achieve the committee's goals.
- » Closure: The best chairs leave a legacy. That means they achieve the goals set by the organization, they encourage the committee members to take on leadership roles, and they pass on important files and folders to the next appointed committee chair. Leave time to personally brief the new chair on achievements, pending work and recommendations. It is the chair's job to "package" the committee and present it so he or she will have a running start.

ABA YLD Awards of Achievement

What They Are

The Awards of Achievement are presented by the Young Lawyers Division of the American Bar Association to the affiliates that have accomplished the most during the previous bar year. The objectives of the Awards of Achievement are to provide an opportunity for local, state, and national YLD affiliates to obtain national recognition for well planned and executed programs that contribute significantly to the public good and to the betterment of the profession.

The Awards of Achievement also provide affiliates an opportunity to exchange ideas and obtain readily accessible information about the projects of other affiliates. In addition, it provides affiliates with a method of comparing and evaluating their programs with those of other affiliates.

Your Role as Committee Chair

Each year in June, the YLD submits a package of all of its committees' accomplishments to the American Bar Association for consideration for the Awards of Achievement. The Georgia YLD has been quite successful in its division in the past.

It is the committee chair's responsibility to get the information for the Awards of Achievement together and forward it to the YLD director after every project is accomplished. This is an ongoing effort that in the past has taken place in the spring, but now involves your cooperation year long after each and every project. Please fill out the project submission form so that we don't have to contact you asking for it. You will not get reimbursed for expenses without filling out the project information form. Please also submit copies of all correspondence, photographs, or videotapes of the project, flyers, or other items generated by your committee for part of your submission. This is not optional! Your task in preparing for the Awards of Achievement submission is made much easier by keeping it in mind as you go.

Steps for Organizing a CLE Program

Step 1

Plan a topic that you think will appeal to your committee/group.

Step 2

Think of a date, time and location to hold the CLE.

Step 3

Coordinate with YLD staff to make sure we can secure the date/location (if at State Bar) or to set up a Zoom webinar.

Step 4

Secure a speaker and get an outline together.

Step 5

Fill out the YLD CLE Approval Form (included in your handbook) and submit to the YLD director along with an agenda/outline.

Step 6

Once CLE approval has been granted, publicize your program—online sign up can be setup through the YLD department.

Your CLE is not approved until the form has been signed off by the YLD director and the CLE director

Step 7

Secure program material. (Do you need A/V for PowerPoint? Do you need to print materials from speaker to pass out?)

Step 8

Provide final catering headcount to the YLD Coordinator 3-5 days before the event.

Step 9

Day of program, you will need attendees to sign a sign-up sheet with their name and Bar number.

Step 10

Submit CLE sign-up sheet with names and Bar numbers along to the YLD department for processing.

Step 11

Email YLD Coordinator with names and addresses of speakers for gifts.

Standing Board Policy 100 (Legislative Policy and Procedure)

Adopted by Board of Governors June 14, 1986

Amended June 20, 1992, June 18, 1994

1.01. General Legislative Policy.

- a. The Bylaws set forth the restrictions on establishing a legislative policy. Article II, Section 6 of the Bylaws provides that:

No legislation shall be recommended, supported or opposed by the State Bar unless:

1. such action has been initiated by an appropriate committee or section, or by any ten members of the Board of Governors; and
2. the text of the legislation is furnished to the President, the President-elect and the Advisory Committee on Legislation at least thirty days prior to its submission for support or opposition as set forth below; and
3. provided further:
 - i. that such legislative position receives a majority vote of the members of the State Bar present at a meeting; or
 - ii. that such legislative position receives a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board of Governors present and voting; or
 - iii. when the Board of Governors is not in session, such legislative position receives a two-thirds vote of the members of the Executive Committee voting.

In addition to and in aid of these legislative powers, the Board shall have the power to adopt, by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Board present and voting, a Standing Board Policy regarding legislation. Such Standing Board Policy shall be binding from session to session unless suspended, modified or rescinded pursuant to a two-thirds vote of the members of the Board present and voting.

No committee or section of the State Bar shall recommend, support or oppose any legislation except in the manner herein provided.

- b. No legislative position shall be taken by the State Bar or any committee, section or other organizational element thereof except as provided for in this policy. Committees, sections or other organizational elements of the Bar are encouraged to debate and discuss legislation relating to their areas of expertise and to let the Advisory Committee on Legislation know of their positions. The ultimate position of the State Bar, however, will be determined pursuant to this Policy.

- c. A legislative position, once adopted, shall remain an official position of the State Bar during the full biennial session of the General Assembly in which it was adopted unless rescinded or modified.
- d. Failure to receive a necessary two thirds vote to favor or oppose legislation shall not be considered adoption of the contrary position.
- e. All legislative positions adopted by the State Bar shall be reduced to writing and communicated to the General Assembly as the organizational positions of the State Bar.
- f. The Advisory Committee on Legislation, the Board, or the Executive Committee may allow any interested person to appear before it in person and in writing in support of or in opposition to any legislative proposal being considered subject to reasonable limitations on available time.
- g. The Board and Executive Committee shall have authority to take reasonable action necessary to communicate and advocate legislative positions adopted pursuant to the Bylaws and this policy.
- h. The Board or the Executive Committee shall have the authority to designate persons to promote State Bar legislative positions. Persons so designated shall be authorized to agree to and to support amendments and substitute legislation which are consistent with legislative positions previously adopted pursuant to the Bylaws and this Policy. No section, committee or other Bar-related organization shall hire or designate any persons or entities to promote State Bar or their own legislative positions nor shall such sections, committees or Bar-related organization expend any funds of the section, committee or organization in the support of or opposition to any legislative positions unless expressly approved by the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee. Should the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee approve such expenditures, the funds of the section, committee or Bar-related organization shall be paid into the Legislative Advocacy Fund.
- i. Nothing in this policy shall be construed to prevent members of the State Bar from presenting their own personal views concerning any legislative matter and members are encouraged to do so while making clear that they are speaking only in their personal capacity.

Standing Board Policy 100 (Legislative Policy and Procedure)

1.02. Board of Governors.

- a. Consideration of any legislative proposal by the Board shall proceed in the following order:
 1. A written proposal shall be presented by an appropriate committee or section or by any 10 members of the Board to the Advisory Committee on Legislation, the President, the President-elect, and each member of the Executive Committee at least 30 days prior to a meeting of the Board. Such proposal shall, as a minimum, include the following:
 - i. the specific legislation, if any, which is pending or proposed;
 - ii. if no specific legislation is pending or proposed, a statement of the issues to be addressed by the legislation;
 - iii. a summary of the existing law;
 - iv. principal known proponents or opponents of the legislation and, if possible, a brief statement of the reasons for opposition or support by the other interests;
 - v. a listing of any other committees or sections which may have an interest in the legislation and a certification that any such committees have been provided a copy of the proposal simultaneous to its transmission to the Advisory Committee on Legislation; and
 - vi. the position which the committee, section or group recommends be adopted by the State Bar.
 2. The Advisory Committee on Legislation, after consideration of the legislative proposal in accordance with Rule 1.04 of this policy, shall make a written recommendation concerning the proposal to the Board at its next meeting. A copy of the written recommendation shall be furnished to each member of the Executive Committee at least ten (10) days prior to the Board meeting.
 3. The Board shall determine specifically by a majority vote of members present and voting whether the proposed legislative action is germane to the legitimate purposes of the State Bar.
 4. If the determination in section (3) above is affirmative, then at least two thirds of the members of the Board present and voting must vote to recommend, to support, or to oppose the legislative proposal.
- b. Legislative positions may be considered and adopted by the Board at any special or regular meeting.

1.03. Executive Committee.

- a. Consideration of any legislative proposal by the Executive Committee shall proceed in the following order:
 1. a proposal adopted by the Advisory Committee on Legislation or from a member of the Executive Committee shall be presented;
 2. the Executive Committee shall specifically determine by a majority of members voting whether the proposed legislative action is germane to the legitimate purposes of the State Bar;
 3. if the determination in subsection (2) above is affirmative, then the Executive Committee shall then determine by a majority vote of those voting either that (i) the requested legislative action could not reasonably have been submitted for consideration by the Board of Governors in accordance with existing policies, or: (ii) that a significant material change in circumstances since the last Board of Governors has made the Executive Committee action necessary;
 4. if either determination in subsection (3) above is affirmative, at least two thirds of the members of the Executive Committee voting must vote to recommend, to support, or to oppose the legislative proposal.
- b. The Executive Committee shall take no action inconsistent with previous action of the Board on substantially identical legislation unless there has been a significant material change in circumstances since the last meeting of the Board of Governors. The failure to receive the required two thirds vote of the Board of Governors shall not be considered "previous action" by the Board.
- c. If any emergency exists and is not feasible for the Executive Committee to act, then the president, upon consultation with and agreement by any two from among the president-elect, the immediate past president and the chairman of the Advisory Committee on Legislation may act upon pending or proposed legislation.
- d. Any action taken by the Executive Committee or president shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting.

1.04. Advisory Committee on Legislation.

- a. Structure—The Advisory Committee shall be composed of at least nine members, at least six of whom shall be members of the Board at the time of their appointment and the Immediate Past President.

Standing Board Policy 100 (Legislative Policy and Procedure)

- b. Initial Terms—The nine members of the Advisory Committee appointed to serve effective July 1, 1986, shall be appointed for initially staggered terms as set out below:
1. three members, including two members of the Board, shall be appointed by the immediate past president for one-year terms.
 2. three members, including two members of the Board, shall be appointed by the president for two-year terms.
 3. three members, including two members of the Board, shall be appointed by the president-elect for three year terms.
 4. the chairman shall be appointed by the president.
- c. Terms—Commencing July 1, 1987, the president-elect shall appoint three members, at least two of whom shall be members of the Board at the time of their appointment, to three-year terms and shall name a chairman-elect. The chairman-elect shall become chairman when the president-elect becomes president. The President, upon consultation with and agreement by the President-elect shall have the power to appoint additional voting members to the Advisory Committee who shall serve during the one-year term of his presidency. However, in any event at least two-thirds of this Committee will be members of the Board at the time of their appointment.
- d. The Advisory Committee will meet for the purpose of developing its recommendations to the Board and Executive Committee with regard to requests to adopt a legislative position.
- e. In each case involving a proposed legislative position, the Advisory Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board or the Executive Committee on the following:
1. whether the proposed legislative action is germane to the legitimate purposes of the State Bar; and
 2. the legislative position which the Board or Executive Committee should adopt.
- f. In addition to the above, the Advisory Committee shall also have the authority to draft and submit to the Board or the Executive Committee, legislative concepts which may or should be the subject of legislation and recommend positions with respect thereto.
- g. When the General Assembly is in session, appropriate committees and sections of the State Bar may submit legislative proposals to the Advisory Committee for approval by the Executive Committee. All such proposals, however, shall be in writing and satisfy the format requirements set forth in subsection (a)(1) of Rule 1.02 of this policy.
- h. The Advisory Committee shall review all legislation filed in the State Legislature which would require an amendment to the State Constitution. The Advisory Committee shall determine whether the State Bar should take a position pursuant to this policy regarding the proposed constitutional amendment.
- i. All matters concerning contract and finance shall be submitted to the Executive Committee for approval.

1.05. Legislative Drafting and Consulting Services.

- a. The State Bar, at the sole discretion of the Executive Committee, may provide legislative drafting, legal research and other similar services to the Office of the Governor and members of the Georgia General Assembly. THE DECISION BY THE STATE BAR TO PROVIDE SUCH SERVICES DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN ENDORSEMENT BY THE STATE BAR OF ANY LEGISLATION REVIEWED OR DRAFTED.
1. All requests for legislative drafting or consulting services should be directed to the President of the State Bar who shall immediately place the request on the agenda of the next Executive Committee Meeting.
 2. Consideration of any legislative drafting or consulting request by the Executive Committee shall proceed in the following order:
 - i. the president shall present the request for legislative drafting or consulting services to the Executive Committee;
 - ii. the Executive Committee shall specifically determine by a majority of members voting that the drafting, research or review of the proposed legislation would not be adverse to the interests of the State Bar;
 - iii. if the determination in subsection (ii) above is affirmative, then the Executive Committee shall determine by majority vote whether or not to provide such services;
 - iv. if the determination in subsection (iii) above is affirmative, the Executive Committee shall refer the matter to the Legislative Research Committee, or other appropriate State Bar committee or section.
 3. Should any emergency exist and it is not feasible for the Executive Committee to act, then the President, upon consultation with and agreement by any two from among the President-elect, the immediate past President, the Chair of the Advisory Committee on Legislation or the Chair of the Legislative Research Committee, may act upon the pending request for legislative drafting or consulting services.

4. The final copy of any proposed legislation drafted by any member or members of the State Bar under this provision shall contain the following disclaimer at the head of the first page, unless the proposed legislation has been considered under the provisions of section 1.01 through 1.04 above:
“The State Bar of Georgia has drafted the following proposed legislation as a service to the Georgia General Assembly and the Office of the Governor. The State Bar takes no position either for or against the enactment of such legislation unless the legislation is approved under the provisions of the State Bar of Georgia’s Standing Board Policy 100.”
- b. Whenever the Executive Committee grants a request to provide legislative drafting or consulting services under this rule, the President, or his or her designee, shall report to the next meeting of the Board of Governors the nature of the referral and current status.

Standing Executive Committee Policy 500 (Email Policy)

Emails To Members

(Adopted August 22, 2003; Amended February 20, 2019)

Purpose

It is important for the members of the Bar to be informed about matters related to the judicial system and legal profession. To that end, the State Bar should provide efficient and effective communication with Georgia lawyers. At the same time, it is recognized that unnecessary or unwanted communications, especially mass emails, have a long-term adverse impact on effective communication. Therefore, this policy is designed to enhance communication by authorizing the use of emails for important information with appropriate limits on frequency and content. It is also intended to maintain compliance with Federal and state laws governing mass emails.

Authorized Communications

- a. Emails are authorized as limited by this policy.
- b. All communications shall be for the lawful purpose of the State Bar of Georgia.

Authorized Users

- a. Supreme Court of Georgia, for any communication to all members;
- b. Court of Appeals of Georgia, for any communication to all members;
- c. State Bar President, for limited, significant Bar-related matters to all members;
- d. YLD President, for limited, significant YLD-related matters to YLD members;
- e. Board of Governors members, for communications with their circuit's members;

(In circuits which have two or more representatives on the Board, each communication shall reflect the view of the majority of the representatives. Bar Counsel’s Review of Bar-Related Contracts

No State Bar-related contract shall be executed without first having been reviewed by Bar Counsel. This review is necessary so that Bar Counsel can assist you in preventing loss and to insure that insurance, indemnity and limitation of liability issues, especially those that are unique to the State Bar, are adequately contemplated.

For all State Bar contracts, the “State Bar of Georgia” shall be identified as the contracting party and the Executive Director is the State Bar’s designated signatory unless another signatory is approved.

At the earliest possible stage in considering a contract, including, but not limited to, contracts for services, entertainment, use of facilities, independent contractors, member benefits, promotions, publishing or purchasing, you shall email a Word version of the contract to YLD Director Jessica Oglesby at jessicao@gabar.org, to be forwarded to Bar Counsel, who will review it for legal sufficiency. The review process can take up to five days for basic contracts or two to three weeks for more complex contracts. Bar Counsel will review the contract and provide you with comments, concerns and/or proposed modifications that you should address before signing the contract.

In order to avoid delays in the execution of the contract, please include Bar Counsel early in the contract process to allow ample time for review and modification. Once the contract is signed by all parties, provide Bar Counsel with a copy of the executed contract.
