THE RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE BAR OF GEORGIA.

Part 1. Chapter 2 Membership

Rule 1-206.1 Law Student Members.

In addition to the membership and classes of membership provided in this Chapter, the State Bar may recognize as law student members, without the rights and privileges of membership, those law students currently enrolled in a law school approved by the American Bar Association or any law school approved by the Georgia Board of Bar Examiners. Law Student members may be furnished copies of appropriate publications and may be entitled to attend and participate, without the right to vote or hold office, in those meetings and activities conducted by the State Bar and any of its component parts or sections.

THE BYLAWS, STATE BAR OF GEORGIA. ARTICLE 1.

Section 6. For Affiliate and Law Student Members.

In addition to the classes of membership provided in the preceding sections of this Article, the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee of the Board may consider and approve or disapprove applications for Affiliate or Law Student membership with the State Bar. Any Affiliate member or Law Student member shall have the right to attend State Bar meetings and receive State Bar official publications, but shall not have the right to hold office or vote or to have other rights and privileges incident to membership. An Affiliate or Law Student member shall not hold himself or herself out to the public or imply in any manner that he or she is a member in good standing of the State Bar of Georgia or entitled to practice law in this State. Affiliate and Law Student members are no longer assigned membership numbers. They will be assigned a membership number when they become an official member obtaining Active or Inactive status. The State Bar retains the right to deny or revoke the membership privileges of any Affiliate or Law Student member who violates this section.

The application form for an Affiliate or Law Student membership shall include the recommendation of the applicant by an Active member in good standing with the State Bar of Georgia. Affiliate or Law Student membership may be renewed each fiscal year without an additional application. The Board of Governors shall prescribe the dues or fees for the Affiliate or Law Student membership. Application to become a Law Student member shall be approved when the applicant is enrolled in a Law School approved by the American Bar Association or the Georgia Board of Bar Examiners.

You must attach a letter from the Office of Administration certifying you are currently enrolled in law school (THIS IS REQUIRED).
