The Georgia Bar Journal

Georgia lawyers read, study, clip and file the Georgia Bar Journal. Advertisers are discovering a fact well known to Georgia lawyers. If you have something to communicate to the lawyers in the state, be sure that it is published in the Georgia Bar Journal.

A survey among our readers concludes that circulation and readership are at an all-time high. The reason? The Georgia Bar Journal is edited for the changing legal profession. Editorial content is carefully balanced with news, scholarly legal articles, practical “how to” stories and historical readings of significant State Bar of Georgia events. Most issues are permanently retained as authoritative reference material.

Your advertising dollars in the Georgia Bar Journal are an efficient advertising investment. Not only does your message have long life, but the cost per thousand is extremely low. Based on the full-page, one-time black and white rate of $1,839, your cost per reader is only approximately five cents!

State Bar of Georgia Advertising & Mailing Label Policy

The State Bar of Georgia reserves the absolute right to reject at any time, with or without cause: (a) any advertisement, for any of its publications or communications whether electronic or print; and (b) any request to purchase or obtain mailing labels.

The decision of the president, upon consultation with and agreement by any two from among the president-elect, immediate past president, executive director, general counsel or editor-in-chief of the Georgia Bar Journal, shall be final regarding the acceptance or rejection of any advertisement and any sale or offer of mailing labels.

The State Bar of Georgia, its staff, employees, officers and volunteers shall not be liable for damages of any kind for the decision to reject any advertisement or for the refusal to sell mailing labels to any person or entity.
